TERMS OF USE:

Permission to reproduce items from New Orleans Public Library special collections is granted for personal use or for use in research, teaching, and/or private study.

Permission to reproduce items for ANY OTHER USE is subject to the following conditions:

1. Permission to publish, broadcast, or display is granted only insofar as the rights of NOPL are concerned.
2. In many cases New Orleans Public Library claims only physical ownership of material in its collections and does not own copyright or other intellectual property rights to this material. In such cases, all responsibility for possible copyright infringement arising from use of reproductions of this material will be assumed by the requesting party.
3. Permission to reproduce materials is granted for one-time use only. Any re-use of the materials without permission is forbidden. This permission is not transferable to any other party.
4. All published, broadcast or displayed reproductions of NOPL material must be properly credited to the appropriate NOPL collection. Consult with staff in the division from which the material was obtained for proper citation.
5. Any negatives or digital files made in the process of reproduction will be returned to NOPL immediately upon completion of the reproduction process.
6. Reproduction may be done only by a photographer or reproduction company approved in advance by NOPL, whether material is reproduced off-site or in-house.
7. Alterations to the original image are not allowed in the publication of NOPL materials without permission.
8. A copy of any publication, documentary, cd-rom, etc. containing reproductions of NOPL materials will be sent without charge to the division from which the material was obtained.
